

Mandated Reporting for Non-Educators QUIZ

Begin QUIZ

Select the best options.

1. Most state laws protect children from abuse and neglect guided by Mandated Reporting Laws. However, in 2014, state agencies estimated that _____ children died as a result of abuse and neglect — between four and five children a day.

a. 7000

b. 6400

c. 1580

d. 3200

Select the item that doesn't seem to fit.

2. Which of the following types of professionals are duty bound to be Mandated Reporters according to information presented in the course?

- a. Healthcare Professional
- b. Legal Professional
- c. Home Interior Designers
- d. A and B.

3. Failure to report Child Abuse results in the following:

a. A reward for being a concerned citizen

b. Jail time

c. Fine

d. B and C

4. According to the federal laws, child abuse can best be defined as:

a. Corporal Punishment

b. Withholding trophies for commendable behavior

c. An act or failure to act which presents an imminent risk of serious harm to a child.

d. All of the above.

5. The primary intent of the reporting law is designed to:
 - a. Create friction among neighbors
 - b. Allow abusers to continue victimizing children
 - c. Offer safe havens for children who have been abused.
 - d. To protect the child from abuse and neglect.

6. Many people think that child abuse is limited to physical harm. This is not the case. What other types of acts are considered abuse?

a. Sexual Abuse

b. Corporal punishment

c. Time outs

d. Preventing your child from watching their favorite television show.

7. According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (2018) there are the five main types of abuse and neglect. Select the forms of abuse below that fit with the definition.

- a. Sexual Exploitation
- b. Psychological abuse
- c. Ignoring your child's request for a new toy
- d. Both A and B

8. In the case study presented in the course, Dentists were indicated as professionals who assume the role of Mandated Reporter. Briefly select from the summative statements below what is required of dentists in terms of being a mandated reporter.

- a. Dentists should determine whether lack of treatment is abuse or neglect.
- b. All dentists should know the law and take an oath to become Mandated Reporters.
- c. If dentists determine that lack of dental treatment is abuse or neglect, then these professionals should look for patterns of abuse or neglect over time.
- d. Both A and C

9. In the course you learned that there protections in place for Mandated Reporters. Identify the type of protection that was discussed the most in the course.

- a. Protection from Jail Time
- b. Protection from fines
- c. Protections against Retaliation
- d. None of the above.

10. During the course, you learned there were best practices that should be followed when making a report. Select the choice that best represents what you learned regarding the process.

- a. If you don't like how your neighbor is treating his child, you should make a report.
- b. You should report an abuse that happened to you as a child.
- c. You have 36 hours to report an incident that you have observed.
- d. All of the above.

Evaluate each scenario. Determine which type(s) Abuse or Neglect has occurred.

Physical abuse - any intentional act causing injury or trauma to a child

Physical neglect - a deficit in meeting a child's basic needs, including the failure to provide adequate health care, supervision, clothing, nutrition, housing as well as their physical, emotional, social, educational and safety needs.

Sexual Exploitation - sexual exploitation is the sexual abuse of children and youth through the exchange of sex or sexual acts for drugs, food, shelter, protection, other basics of life, and/or money.

Sexual abuse - Sexual abuse, also referred to as molestation, is usually undesired sexual behavior by one person upon another.

Psychological abuse (also referred to as psychological violence, emotional abuse, or mental abuse) is a form of abuse, characterized by a person subjecting, or exposing, another person to behavior that may result in psychological trauma, including anxiety, chronic depression, or post-traumatic stress disorder.

11. You are a Police Officer, you are doing a routine traffic stop when you notice that the child in the backseat of the car has clustered injuries that form regular patterns on the child's face and neck.

- a. Physical abuse
- b. Physical neglect
- c. Sexual Exploitation
- d. Sexual abuse
- e. Psychological abuse

Evaluate each scenario. Determine which type(s) Abuse or Neglect has occurred.

Physical abuse - any intentional act causing injury or trauma to a child

Physical neglect - a deficit in meeting a child's basic needs, including the failure to provide adequate health care, supervision, clothing, nutrition, housing as well as their physical, emotional, social, educational and safety needs.

Sexual Exploitation - sexual exploitation is the sexual abuse of children and youth through the exchange of sex or sexual acts for drugs, food, shelter, protection, other basics of life, and/or money.

Sexual abuse - Sexual abuse, also referred to as molestation, is usually undesired sexual behavior by one person upon another.

Psychological abuse (also referred to as psychological violence, emotional abuse, or mental abuse) is a form of abuse, characterized by a person subjecting, or exposing, another person to behavior that may result in psychological trauma, including anxiety, chronic depression, or post-traumatic stress disorder.

12. You are a Daycare Provider. You observe that the child you are babysitting is wearing dirty clothes and smells like sweat and dirt.

- a. Physical abuse
- b. Physical neglect
- c. Sexual Exploitation
- d. Sexual abuse
- e. Psychological abuse

Evaluate each scenario. Determine which type(s) Abuse or Neglect has occurred.

Physical abuse - any intentional act causing injury or trauma to a child

Physical neglect - a deficit in meeting a child's basic needs, including the failure to provide adequate health care, supervision, clothing, nutrition, housing as well as their physical, emotional, social, educational and safety needs.

Sexual Exploitation - sexual exploitation is the sexual abuse of children and youth through the exchange of sex or sexual acts for drugs, food, shelter, protection, other basics of life, and/or money.

Sexual abuse - Sexual abuse, also referred to as molestation, is usually undesired sexual behavior by one person upon another.

Psychological abuse (also referred to as psychological violence, emotional abuse, or mental abuse) is a form of abuse, characterized by a person subjecting, or exposing, another person to behavior that may result in psychological trauma, including anxiety, chronic depression, or post-traumatic stress disorder.

13. You are a Medical Doctor. You are attending to a 10-year-old female patient who is suffering from a Sexually Transmitted Disease.

- a. Physical abuse
- b. Physical neglect
- c. Sexual Exploitation
- d. Sexual abuse
- e. Psychological abuse

Evaluate each scenario. Determine which type(s) Abuse or Neglect has occurred.

Physical abuse - any intentional act causing injury or trauma to a child

Physical neglect - a deficit in meeting a child's basic needs, including the failure to provide adequate health care, supervision, clothing, nutrition, housing as well as their physical, emotional, social, educational and safety needs.

Sexual Exploitation - sexual exploitation is the sexual abuse of children and youth through the exchange of sex or sexual acts for drugs, food, shelter, protection, other basics of life, and/or money.

Sexual abuse - Sexual abuse, also referred to as molestation, is usually undesired sexual behavior by one person upon another.

Psychological abuse (also referred to as psychological violence, emotional abuse, or mental abuse) is a form of abuse, characterized by a person subjecting, or exposing, another person to behavior that may result in psychological trauma, including anxiety, chronic depression, or post-traumatic stress disorder.

14. You are a flight attendant. You notice that an adult male is sitting next to a teenage female. The female acts withdrawn and is crying most of the way through the flight. The young female uses the restroom and takes a moment to inform you that she is being held against her will and is being transported to another state.

- a. Physical abuse
- b. Physical neglect
- c. Sexual Exploitation
- d. Sexual abuse
- e. Psychological abuse

Evaluate each scenario. Determine which type(s) Abuse or Neglect has occurred.

Physical abuse - any intentional act causing injury or trauma to a child

Physical neglect - a deficit in meeting a child's basic needs, including the failure to provide adequate health care, supervision, clothing, nutrition, housing as well as their physical, emotional, social, educational and safety needs.

Sexual Exploitation - sexual exploitation is the sexual abuse of children and youth through the exchange of sex or sexual acts for drugs, food, shelter, protection, other basics of life, and/or money.

Sexual abuse - Sexual abuse, also referred to as molestation, is usually undesired sexual behavior by one person upon another.

Psychological abuse (also referred to as psychological violence, emotional abuse, or mental abuse) is a form of abuse, characterized by a person subjecting, or exposing, another person to behavior that may result in psychological trauma, including anxiety, chronic depression, or post-traumatic stress disorder.

15. You are an employee at a well known photo distributor and repository. You consistently notice that one paying customer continually shares photos of young, naked children posing sexually. Select all that may apply.

- a. Physical abuse
- b. Physical neglect
- c. Sexual Exploitation
- d. Sexual abuse
- e. Psychological abuse

Evaluate each scenario. Determine which type(s) Abuse or Neglect has occurred.

Physical abuse - any intentional act causing injury or trauma to a child

Physical neglect - a deficit in meeting a child's basic needs, including the failure to provide adequate health care, supervision, clothing, nutrition, housing as well as their physical, emotional, social, educational and safety needs.

Sexual Exploitation - sexual exploitation is the sexual abuse of children and youth through the exchange of sex or sexual acts for drugs, food, shelter, protection, other basics of life, and/or money.

Sexual abuse - Sexual abuse, also referred to as molestation, is usually undesired sexual behavior by one person upon another.

Psychological abuse (also referred to as psychological violence, emotional abuse, or mental abuse) is a form of abuse, characterized by a person subjecting, or exposing, another person to behavior that may result in psychological trauma, including anxiety, chronic depression, or post-traumatic stress disorder.

16. You are a Social Worker. Your neighbor is a 35-year-old single mother with three children. Night after night you notice she yells at her children. One of the children tells you that she has not eaten for 3 days as a punishment.

- a. Physical abuse
- b. Physical neglect
- c. Sexual Exploitation
- d. Sexual abuse
- e. Psychological abuse

Evaluate each scenario. Determine which type(s) Abuse or Neglect has occurred.

Physical abuse - any intentional act causing injury or trauma to a child

Physical neglect - a deficit in meeting a child's basic needs, including the failure to provide adequate health care, supervision, clothing, nutrition, housing as well as their physical, emotional, social, educational and safety needs.

Sexual Exploitation - sexual exploitation is the sexual abuse of children and youth through the exchange of sex or sexual acts for drugs, food, shelter, protection, other basics of life, and/or money.

Sexual abuse - Sexual abuse, also referred to as molestation, is usually undesired sexual behavior by one person upon another.

Psychological abuse (also referred to as psychological violence, emotional abuse, or mental abuse) is a form of abuse, characterized by a person subjecting, or exposing, another person to behavior that may result in psychological trauma, including anxiety, chronic depression, or post-traumatic stress disorder.

17. You are an attorney and represent your plaintiff who is an adult female seeking a divorce. The couple has 3 children. The male is seeking custody. Your plaintiff becomes distraught at the thought of having to share custody and shows you pictures of patterned bruises on her children.

- a. Physical abuse
- b. Physical neglect
- c. Sexual Exploitation
- d. Sexual abuse
- e. Psychological abuse

18. According to the Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act, you may hold the belief regarding whether child abuse or neglect has occurred. This belief is known as?.

- a. Informed Consent
- b. Personal Belief
- c. Reasonable Suspicion
- d. None of the above.

19. If you believe that a child is in immediate danger, you are mandated to do the following:

- a. Report an incident within 36 hours.
- b. Document the behavior and collect data over time.
- c. Ignore the incident.
- d. Immediately call 9-1-1.

20. There are three types of Report Dispositions, which include:

- a. Unfounded Report
- b. Substantiated Report
- c. Inconclusive Report
- d. All of the above.

The End – Thank you for participating.

Exit QUIZ